

BWINDI - LAKE BUNYONYI - MGAHINGA GORILLA NP (4 Days)

Excerpt:

Our most comprehensive Uganda tour! Begin in Bwindi (known as the 'Switzerland of Africa') for shopping and a stop at the equator line. Then your next day is dedicated solely to gorilla trekking. Next you visit LakeBunyonya (with its 29 islands) for a boat cruise and island lunch. On your fourth day be amazed at the thick bamboo of Echuya forest and volcano views in Mgahinga National Park.

Description

Itinerary

Day 1: Kampala - Bwindi

- * Leave Kampala early and head for Bwindi in south - western Uganda popularly known as the Switzerland of Africa.
- * En route, interluct with the royal drum makers where you could buy souvenirs.
- * You could also buy handcrafts and varieties of fresh fruits.
- * Stop at the equator to have the feel of being at both hemispheres at ago.
- * Proceed through Mbarara and arrive Bwindi late evening.

Day 2: Gorilla tracking

- * Head for the thick tropical forest to track your closest relatives in the hilly - steep terrain reaching up to 5200ft.
- * Irrespective of the difficulties, encounter with these wild humans is a rewarding experience! You will live to remember to tell your children.

Day 3: Bwindi - lake Bunyonyi

- * After breakfast, drive to Lake Bunyonyi popular for cray fish and beautiful 29 islands.
- * Take a boat cruise on the lake, view birds, visit the islands.
- * Have Lunch on Bushara island.
- * Do forest/nature walk as you bird watch on the island.
- * Evening & overnight either at Bushara or Bunyonyi overland camp.

Day 4: Bunyonyi - Mgahinga

- * After your early breakfast, set off for Kisoro district where Mgahinga NP is located.
- * You will pass through Echuya forest, take your time to marvel at this thick bamboo forest.
- * Proceed to kanaba area, overlooking the volcanoes. Stop and enjoy this beautiful terraced volcanic hills plus their associated lakes and craters.